

I make my living by driving in the tri-state area, and I rely on the instant access to traffic updates on XM radio. Driving around a traffic problem and saving time is much better than sitting in traffic and burning valuable fuel.